TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE COLLABORATIVE (TAC)

CAPACITY BUILDING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

Technical Assistance Collaborative

- TAC is a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping our nation's human services, health care, homelessness, and affordable housing systems implement policies and practices that empower people to live healthy, independent lives in the communities they choose.
- TAC is a national leader in helping states and localities to design, implement, and evaluate strategies to understand their current homeless response system and identify housing and service resources to decrease the number of people experiencing homelessness.

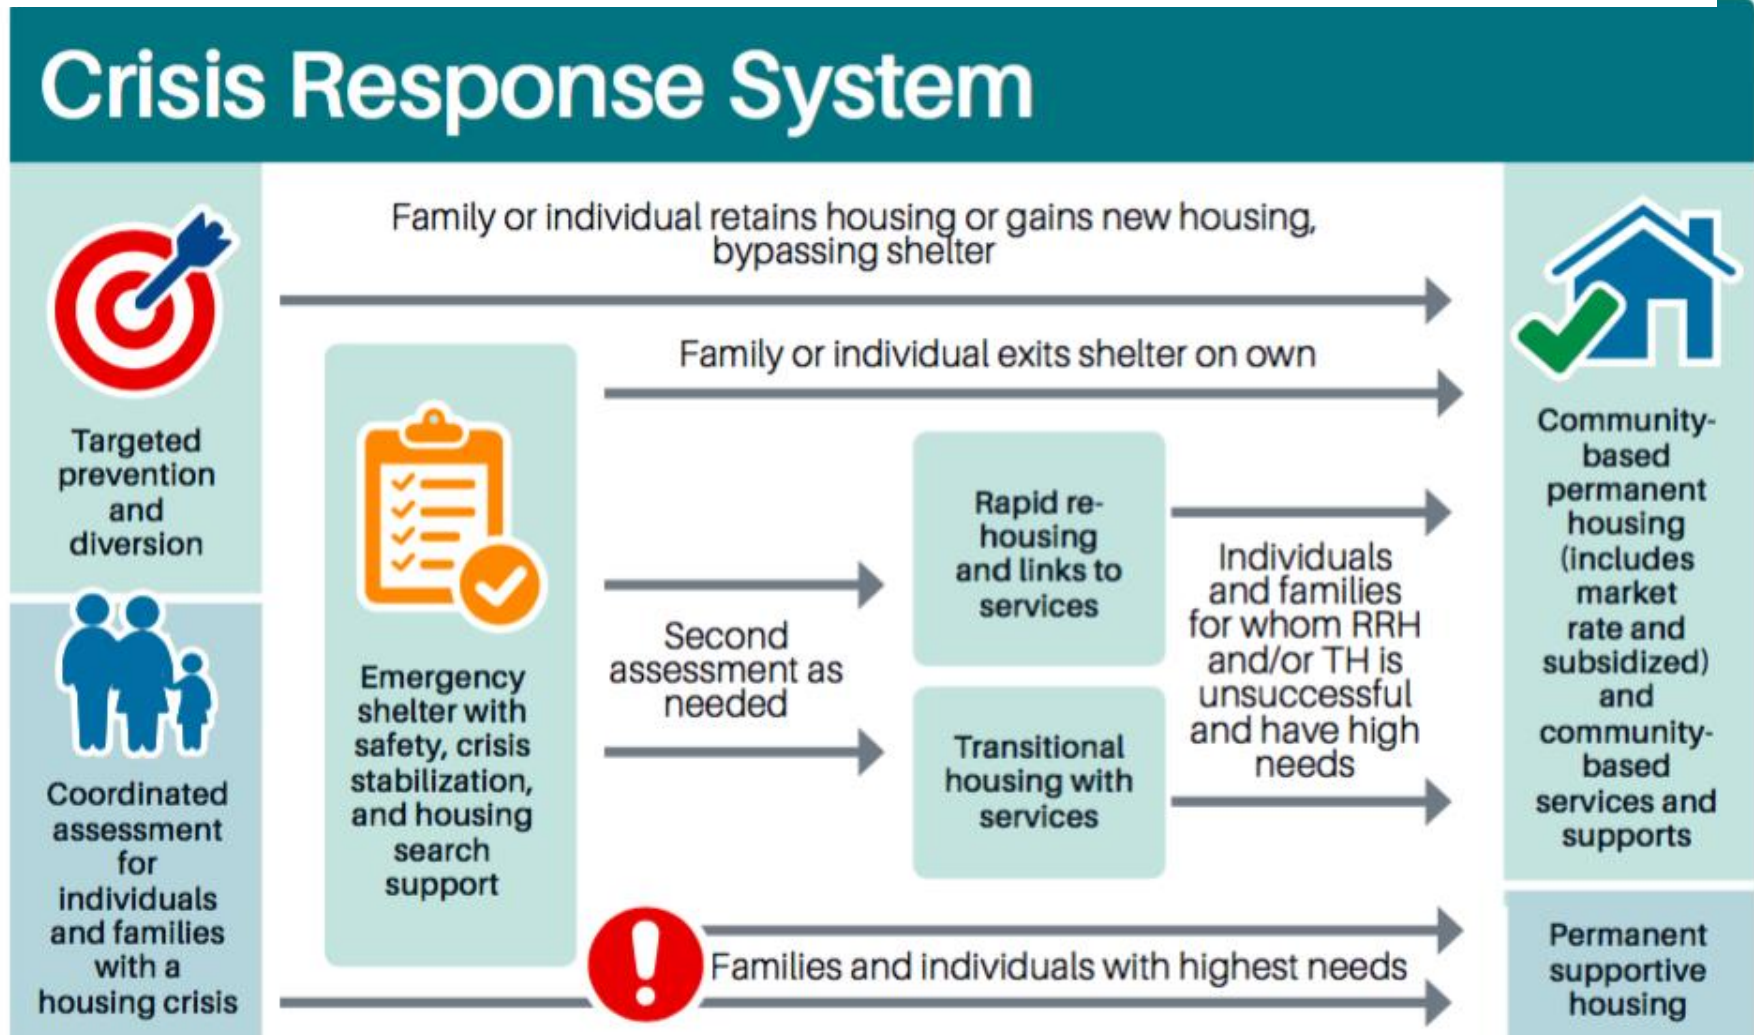

Homeless Crisis Response System Goals

- People in crisis have access to an immediate response to their crisis including a safe place to go when no alternative to entering shelter can be found.
- People are not unsheltered.
- People do not spend long periods of time homeless – they have access to help to reconnect to housing.
- People exiting homelessness do not quickly cycle back in.

Elements of Strong Homeless Crisis Response System

- Housing First approach across the system
- Diversion from homeless system when possible
- Rapid identification and engagement of people experiencing unsheltered homelessness to connect them to crisis services and housing assistance
- Quick, accessible, low-barrier pathways to shelter and other crisis services with short stays in shelter
- Rapid connection to permanent housing for all sheltered and unsheltered people, with priority on most vulnerable

Strong Capacity Building = Effective Homeless Crisis Response System

Homeless Crisis Response System Performance Measures

The length of time individuals and families remain homeless.

- Demonstrating a reduction of the average and median length of time persons enrolled in emergency shelter, transitional housing, or safe haven projects experience homelessness.

The extent to which individuals and families who leave homelessness experience additional spells of homelessness.

- Demonstrating a reduction in the percent of persons who have left homelessness (i.e., exited continuum projects into permanent housing destinations) who return to homelessness (i.e., return to continuum projects for which homelessness is an eligibility criterion).

Homeless Crisis Response System Performance Measures

The thoroughness in reaching homeless individuals and families

- Measured through a community's coordinated entry system, the geographic coverage of homeless assistance projects, and the community's street outreach efforts

Overall reduction in the number of homeless individuals and families

- Demonstrating a reduction in the number of homeless individuals and families identified in the Point-in-Time (PIT) sheltered and unsheltered counts and annual sheltered data within the CoC over time.

Homeless Crisis Response System Performance Measures

Job and income growth for homeless individuals and families

- Demonstrating that the percent of homeless adults being served in projects increase their earned (i.e., employment) income and/or other income between their enrollment in the system and their exit (or follow-up assessment).

Success at reducing the number of individuals and families who become homeless

- Demonstrating a reduction in the number of persons experiencing homelessness for the first time.

Capacity Building Technical Assistance

Capacity Building TA

- Provide direct technical assistance to CoCs and County's endeavoring to enhance, develop, and build local capacity to resolve homelessness in the community
- TAC will engage in a variety of technical assistance activities within the community, to support efforts to build or improve a systems and capacity to coordinate homeless services and housing

Examples of Capacity Building TA

- GOVERNANCE & STRUCTURE

- Reviewing your CoC structure, facilitating conversations, reviewing and revising your charter, assessing your committee structure and membership, and making practical recommendations to improve your system

- COORDINATED ENTRY

- Assisting in design and implement a new coordinated entry system or helping bring a successful system to scale, we can help you identify gaps, maximize participation, and improve and evaluate outcomes

- STRATEGIC PLANNING

- As your community focuses on developing or updating its strategic plan to end homelessness, we can work with you to align the policies and resources of providers, government agencies, and local efforts with best practices and federal funding priorities and resources.

Capacity Building Elements

- PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT

- Demonstrate data-informed planning and outcomes, CoCs need both project- and system-level performance measures. TAC can help you to understand your current system and make long-term plans based on defining performance measures, identifying targets aligned with federal goals, and creating tools to monitor outcomes.

- DISASTER RELIEF

- Help you ensure that those who are most vulnerable are a part of your planning and recovery efforts. We can assist you with using multiple funding streams in advance of CDBG-DR, creating program guidelines, and implementation support.

- HOMELESS MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

- Assist in improving participation rates and coverage in your community's Homeless Management Information System (HMIS), giving you both accurate client-level data and information about the provision of housing and services to homeless individuals and families.

Capacity Building Elements

- RAPID RE-HOUSING

- Assist in integrating rapid re-housing into your homeless crisis response systems by making it a system-wide primary intervention, strengthening program design, creating evaluation mechanisms, and training staff

- YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

- Working with communities on strategic planning processes to prevent and end youth homelessness, through collecting and analyzing data, coordinating with other systems of care that interact with youth, and implementing promising program

- SYSTEM MAPS

- Develop a system map to “right size” its outreach, prevention, diversion, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing resources. This is a good tool to make system flow data accessible to all stakeholders, supporting data-informed decision-making in the planning process.

Capacity Building Elements

Other aspects of homeless response system planning include

- Designing effective point-in-time (PIT) counts
- Identifying and repurposing underperforming projects
- Conducting gaps analyses to identify ways your community can meet the needs of people who are at risk or currently experiencing homelessness

BUILDING SUCCESSFUL SYSTEMS AND PROGRAMS THROUGH HOUSING FIRST TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

Housing First Technical Assistance

Jean Field, HomeBase
Tara Ozes, HomeBase

WHO WE ARE

HomeBase has been working with Continuums of Care and homeless service providers throughout the country for three decades on eradicating homelessness.

We help CoCs and providers design and implement Housing First and other major system changes across every level of the community.

WHY IS HOUSING FIRST SO IMPORTANT?

- Housing First ensures the most vulnerable people have access to housing and services without the barriers that keep them out of shelters and housing – and makes their situation worse
- Community-wide Housing First practices are essential to a strong, well-functioning system of care
- It's evidence-based: Housing First has proven to be more effective than systems that impose “housing ready” transitions or other requirements
- Not just a best practice...it's the law: All California state funded/administered programs (CA Welf & Inst Code § 8255 (2016)) must be Housing First

WHAT IS HOUSING FIRST?

Housing First removes barriers to housing and retention and prioritizes the most vulnerable and high-need persons for housing assistance with four overarching principles:

CHARACTERISTICS OF HOUSING-FIRST PROJECTS

HOW DO YOU MAKE IT WORK?
